

Court cases brew for and against those working on railroad

Looking back, from page A1

Masciolo was searched and strapped around the calf of his left leg was found a leather purse containing $79.51. He also had a revolver and a large number of matches. Masciolo said he was on his way to Chicago. He is wanted in Bloomington for a number of offenses ranging from beating a board bill to assault and battery."

Marshal Ed Johns, according to the Courier account, on the spot meted out some Monroe County justice. He relieved Masciolo of $36.60 — the board bill plus collecting costs — and sent him on his way to Chicago.
