

Mystery of the decapitated man

Looking back, from page A1

stranger. "In all probability the body of this stranger will yet fall into the hands of township trustee Walker for burial. The state anatomical board refuses to accept it as they are a bit chary about taking bodies where death has occurred under such suspicious circumstances. Coroner Rogers has notified Mr. Walker that he is to take charge of the body and arrange for burial in case it is unclaimed."

Next Week: Murder or Suicide?