The doby four candicatic City Council oppose aspects of see, alleged the storn violation of state including RCRA.		permits for storage of hazardous wastes. "My response to the EPA acton would be that I am enforcing state law with criminal sanctions, which is not governed by RCRA or TSCA or any other federal provisions." Miller said Friday. "I don't see it's going to have any influence on any action that might be taken by my office." Miller said he recently received a				agement. He said he plans to examine the state's response, then write to the state. Westinghouse and the City of Bloomington informing them of his position on whether state law would be violated if the storage facility were used. "At this point I still haven't been told anything that would lead me to believe permits wouldn't be required in this instance." he said.
